Drymen Heritage Trail, is a walk back in time to discover Drymen's fascinating history, brought to life with short podcasts.

Through audio on the village website you can listen to 'life as it was' in the village throughout the centuries, recorded by current village residents in an interactive Heritage Trail.

On the trail you will discover the home of an Olympic hero, the oldest licenced pub in Scotland, a viewpoint where you can see Loch Lomond and learn about the significant role that the Village Square has played over hundreds of years.
