

Welcome to Drymen

Failte gu Druiminn

Explore Drymen

Why not buy a copy of the Drymen Paths leaflet from village shops? Explore the local network of paths connecting Drymen with neighbouring communities.

- 1 Drymen to Balmaha
4½ miles (7 km) moderate
- 2 Gartness Road
1½ miles (2 km) easy
- 3 Coldrach Loan & Buchanan Castle Estate
4 miles (6 km) moderate
- 4 West Highland Way & Rob Roy Circular
3½ miles (5½ km) moderate
- 5 Garadhban Forest and Creityhall
7 miles (11 km) moderate
- 6 Drymen to Croftamie Circular
4½ miles (7 km) moderate
- 7 Balmaha to Drymen via Conic Hill
7 miles (11 km) strenuous
- 8 Viewpoint
¼ mile (500m) easy

- West Highland Way
- Rob Roy Way
- National Cycle Network 7

Drymen (pronounced Drimmen) is the gateway to East Loch Lomond. In the late 18th century Drymen had an important role as a stopover for Highland cattle drovers.

After the arrival of the railways in the mid 19th century, Drymen became a small market village supplying goods and services to the Duke of Montrose at Buchanan Castle.

Drymen is now a thriving tourist centre with hotels and pubs, cafes and restaurants catering for the many visitors who pass through the village. The famous West Highland Way skirts the edge of the village, and the Rob Roy Way starts in Drymen and heads to Pitlochry in Perthshire.

National Cycle Route 7 passes through the village, and the John Muir Trail runs just to the south of Drymen.

Horses are regularly seen being ridden through the village, and you can sail on Loch Lomond from nearby at Balmaha.

Other attractions close by are the Cashel Forest reserve just north of Balmaha, and the Queen Elizabeth Forest Park. Drymen is therefore the perfect place to visit for those who enjoy the outdoors.

What's on

With an active community, there's always something going on in Drymen - here's a few highlights for your diary!

May
Drymen Show

June
Gala Day

July
Piping in the Square

August
Piping in the Square

December
Christmas lights

Visit our facebook page for more information and details

 drymen.community

